

NEW RED MASSACRE OF 62 ADDITIONAL WAR PRISONERS DISCLOSED AS ORGANIZED NORTH KOREAN RESISTANCE IS DECLARED VIRTUALLY ENDED; 136 G.I.'S ARE MURDERED

26,000 N. Korean Soldiers Taken Prisoners in 24 Hours

120,000 UP TO PRESENT

One Objective is To Catch Up With Leaders of Red Regime

By Irving R. Levine (I. N. S. War Correspondent)

SEOUL, Oct. 23—(INS)—A new Red massacre of 62 additional American war prisoners — for a two-day toll of 136 G.I.'s murdered by their captors — was disclosed today as organized North Korean resistance was declared virtually ended.

With United Nations troops spearheading within 50 miles of Communist Manchuria's border, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced late Monday that 26,000 North Korean soldiers were taken prisoners in the 24 hours up to Sunday midnight.

This raised the total of enemy prisoners in UN hands to more than 120,000 out of a North Korean army once estimated at a maximum strength of over 200,000.

U. S. Eighth Army and Fifth Air Force officials reported the mass slaying of another 62 American captives being transported north from Allied-occupied Pyongyang toward the Manchurian frontier.

Seventy-four U. S. soldiers were disclosed to have been massacred the day before during a similar "death march."

Spurred by these atrocity deaths, UN columns were pushing rapidly along all rail lines leading north from the former Red capital of Pyongyang in a race to rescue other hundreds of Americans and South-Koreans still in enemy custody.

Monday morning ROK (Republic of Korea) troops had reached within 50 miles south of Manchuria.

THE EGG AND YOU

This is a story about eggs. Not the kind you may have had for breakfast, but dried eggs, of which the government now owns $115,000,000 worth. Stored in various parts of the nation are 108,095,000 pounds of this commodity, purchased at prices ranging from 96 cents to $1.25 a pound, under the government's price-support system.

Restrictions under this system place an arbitrary resale price on the eggs, said to be so high they cannot be used commercially with profit.

But there is a large demand for dried eggs by bakeries and other food processors. The demand is being supplied in part by shipments from communist China.
The eager-beaver reds over there are sending them here by the boat-load. Seven hundred tons have already arrived, and more are on the way.

These eggs are shipped to Vancouver, Wash., the import duty having been lowered to 47 cents a pound. The price paid China shippers is not stated, but these eggs can be sold in the U. S. at prices which virtually put the domestic product out of the market.

An effort is being made to reduce the price advantage by raising the tariff to 27 cents. In the meantime, the American taxpayer is standing the gouge under a system which makes it possible for a foreign product to undersell the domestic, providing money for the commons to use in building an economy, the resources of which may supply the weapons for this country's undoing.

THE LOAFER PROBLEM

While the government is scurrying about trying to find enough men to meet military quotas without disrupting the nation's economy, and industry is seeking more workers, both are discovering the unpleasant fact that the ranks of the loafers have not diminished through the years.

In fact, under present governmental practices, aided by the benefits of social welfare, the number of malingers has increased.

Workers are needed on the farms and in the factories, yet there is no response from men to be found in every community who seem to have no visible means of support, and who spend their time in idleness.

Frequently the comment is heard: "Put 'em in the Army." But loafers are no more useful in the Army than in civilian jobs.
The loafer is a total loss in any field of endeavor. He has no training in any skill, he accepts no responsibility for his personal welfare and is simply an encumbrance on the fringe of society, existing upon the labor of others.

Many find security under the liberal provisions of social welfare. Unemployment rolls probably contain the name of many who exploit that setup for unjustified handouts. These remain the human debris in the current of life, of no use to themselves or to the communities burdened with them.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol June 12, 1902. The Gazette, a weekly news paper published at Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

Many statistics concerning the schools of the county, based on the reports of the past year, have been compiled by former County Superintendent William H. Slotter in a report to be forwarded to the Department of Public Instruction.

In the report it is shown that there are 250 school houses, with 346 rooms in all, and with seating accommodations for 15,560 scholars. Only four rooms are said to be without sufficient seating capacity.

Male teachers employed number 166, while the instructors of the gentler sex reach the number of 241. Their average age is 24 years. Of the whole corps of teachers, 59 had no previous experience, and 170 had taught five years or more. Seventy-five of the teachers hold provisional certificates, 27 professional certificates, and 445 permanent certificates.

The 40-foot bell tower for Goodwill Hose Co. No. 3, has been erected and the 600 pound bell raised to its position. As soon as the striking apparatus arrives the bell will be put in service.

It is said that on Decoration day the Otter street trolley carried over 4000 passengers between Croydon and Bristol. This includes the traffic to and from the cemetery.

The board of health of Burlington, N. J., has published a statement setting forth the expenditures incident to the recent smallpox epidemic which now ceases to exist in that city. There were 15 cases which extended over a period of four months. Eight houses were isolated and 45 persons were subjected to the quarantine. The total cost of treating the patients and safeguarding the inhabitants amounted to $2,788.59.

The Goodyear Vulcanite Company, of Morrisville, has purchased the property of Caroline S. Rue, known as the Taylor saw-mill and lumber yard property, for $5500.

The company will erect a number of brick buildings and will remove their entire plant from the present location to the new site. The Vulcanite Company has also taken an option on the adjoining property owned by the Broad Street National Bank, of Trenton.

As the epidemic of smallpox continues to rage, the officials of the Pennsylvania railroad have issued orders to the effect that all the employees of the New York Division be vaccinated.

A swarm of bees about the size of a barrel passed over West Bristol township one day last week and from all accounts made it very interesting for some of the residents of China Lane. They finally settled on the house of Edwin Sinclair and as the second story window was raised they flew in the room, swarmed over the bed post and proceeded to make honey. Mrs.
Sinclair, hearing a strange noise in her room, went to investigate and at once concluded that she and the bees could not occupy the same bed. She quickly grasped a hair-brush in one hand and a palm leaf fan in the other and cleared the room. The swarm is now located in the caves of the house and are doing nicely.

LANGHORNE—The class of 1902 of the high school held their graduation exercises in I. O. O. F. hall on Tuesday evening, June 10. The graduates were: Anna W. Gillingham, George D. Hackett, Clinton H.
Longshore, Harry L. Ridge, J. Burleigh Tomlinson, and Margaret L.
Wildman.

The annual jug breaking of the Edgington Presbyterian Church Missionary Society took place at the home of Mrs. Henry Jones, Sherwood Grove on Friday last.

"WASHINGTON REPORT"

By FULTON LEWIS, JR.

(Copyright, 1950
King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—Charles F. Brannan, whose farm program concoction was the closest thing to the old time circus shell-game that politics has witnessed in a long time, is the Little Iodine of the current Democratic election campaign. For the duration of the tea party, he has been relegated to the upstairs back room, in hopes the guests will forget that he and his brain child ever existed at all.

Furthermore, observers, who are familiar with the agricultural picture, predict that if the Republicans, on November 7, regain the farm belt strength which they lost in 1948, Mr. Brannan's plush office as Secretary of Agriculture will have a new occupant in very short order.

The most open tip-off to the Administration's cool-down on Mr.
Brannan and the highly controversial farm scheme which he foisted on his political family, came recently from Vice President Alben Barkley.

Speaking in Milwaukee early this month, the Veep told a news conference: "The Brannan Plan is controversial. It is entitled to be studied, but I am not committed to it and the party is not committed to it."

That remark raised a lot of eyebrows.

There have been other strong straws in the let's-back-up-on-Brannan wind. Such as item one: Albert J. Loveland, who resigned as Undersecretary of Agriculture early this year to go back to his home state of Iowa and run as a Democratic nominee for the Senate, has completely dropped his previous strong advocacy of the Brannan Plan. This, in effect, is sort of brushing that issue under the rug in the hope that people will forget about it. And such as item two: Mr. Brannan, who was one of the hardest-working and most vocal of all Democratic campaign speakers last week. His office received several inquiries about the possibility of his speaking here, there and the other place. Those requests were passed along to the speakers' bureau of the Democratic National Committee, where they gathered dust for weeks. Finally, last Wednesday, the committee announced an itinerary for Mr.
Brannan which consists primarily of whistle-stop speeches in four

Western states—Wisconsin, Minnesota, Colorado, and California.

Mr. Brannan, one way and another, has larked a good many highly-placed people. Because of his unremitting support of his robbing-Peter-to-pay-Paul farm program and his alleged lack of cooperation in other respects, he has virtually no influence with the Senate and House Agriculture Committees. He is at loggerheads openly with the powerful American Farm Bureau Federation, and somewhat less openly with the National Grange and the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives. The only major farm organization he does get along with is the smallest of the four—the very left-wing National Farmers Union.

Mr. Brannan's predecessors used to consult regularly with leaders of the big farm organizations—not only consult, but give honest consideration to their advice. Not so Mr. Brannan. The only farm organization leader he ever consults with nowadays is James G. Patton, president of the Farmers Union. It has been weeks since he has seen leaders of any of the three big organizations. And he has been waging an open running warfare with one of them—Allen Klein, president of the Farm Bureau Federation, which is the biggest of all the farm organizations. The battle began over the Brannan Plan, which Mr. Klein frankly abhors.
Fuel was added by the fact that on three separate occasions, Mr. Brannan wrote letters to Mr. Klein and released them to the press here in Washington before they ever reached Mr. Klein, which Mr. Klein frankly disliked.

Mr. Brannan's waning influence was given another downward shove by the ascendancy of his immediate predecessor, former Secretary of Agriculture and now Senator from New Mexico, Clinton B. Anderson.
Sen. Anderson puts up a public front of having confidence in Secretary Brannan but privately admits that he not only has none now, but never did have. His dislike of the Brannan Plan is so strong that he once went to the White House for the specific purpose of protesting against the President's support of it.

Sen. Anderson recently was named Executive Vice-Chairman of the Democratic National Committee. In that job, he comes pretty close to being the Committee's campaign director. That probably has a good deal to do with the fact that Mr.
Brannan is doing so little campaigning.

Taken all in all, the picture seems to be that Mr. Truman's top political advisors have persuaded him that the Party's support of the Brannan Plan was costing votes, rather than winning them; that the Barkley line of "the Brannan Plan should be studied," assuming, of course, the Republicans will let them get away with it; and that if Democratic strength among farmers seems to fall off in the November 7 balloting, it would be better to get a new Secretary of Agriculture and start off with a clean slate.

New Massacre of 62 War Prisoners Disclosed churia's Yalu river boundary as an Eighth Army officer declared: "Organized enemy resistance in Korea appears to have ended." Driving up the mountainous middle of the peninsula, ROK Sixth Division forces rammed into Hui-chon, 50 miles below the Yalu on the main route to the North Korean refugee government capital of Kanggye. The latter is 21 miles south of the Chinese-Manchurian frontier.

Along North Korea's western seaboard, some 6,000 American paratroops, which had descended upon the Sukchon and Sunghon hubs on Pyongyang's two principal northward rail arteries, joined forces with British Commonwealth troops.

An Eighth Army source said 20 American war prisoners were rescued by one unit of the paratroops and later were turned over to the First Cavalry Division for removal to the rear.

Some reports estimated that as many as 1,500 Americans were still in enemy hands. Correspondents were asked to refrain from stating probable locations of these groups because to do so might imperil their lives.

Their rescue became a major objective of the Allied columns driving north toward the Manchurian frontier.

Another objective was to catch up—if possible—with the leaders of the North Korean Red regime which launched the invasion of South Korea last June 25th. Military quarters in Seoul said South Korean troops were in "hot pursuit" of North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung and his Communist government.

Dedicate Home For Morrisville "Vets"

man, called upon the post commander for a few remarks. Commander McGuire said: "This new home is dedicated to the American way of life and the ones who served their country. The committee endeavored in glory with the dedication of this building. The members gave willingly of their time to finish the building. As we dedicate this home we dedicate it to all those who paid the high price in all our wars and their memory will be enshrined in our post home."

Walter K. Koons, Home Association president, was introduced as master of ceremonies.

Koons said: "The determination of a faithful few is the result you see here today. The home represents a lot of hard work by the members as it was built entirely by the members themselves. It is a building worthy to enshrine the memory of the ones who lost their lives in the wars of our country."

Colonel Irving Pugh, chairman of the dedication committee, was unable to attend because of illness and James Wood read a message from him, as follows: "This dedication is not just a meeting place, but we are assembled to also pay tribute to all in the service of our country in all our wars. This home is to honor our country and the ones who protect and have protected it." The message thanked the committee for making the affair a success.

Mayor of Morrisville, William Burgess, was introduced, who wished the V. F. W. success.

Koons said: "As president of the home association I present to the commander of this post a memorial plaque and this building dedicated to all service men from the revolutionary war to the last one fought."

Commander McGuire said: "On behalf of Morrisville Memorial Post 6176, Veterans of Foreign Wars, I accept this post home from the Home Association and appreciate all the work done that made this post home possible." He then instructed the sergeant of the color guard to unveil the memorial plaque.

Vocal selections were rendered by Donald Lang with James Wood accompanying on the piano.

Lt. Colonel Kuhns of the Pennsylvania National Guard, representing Governor Duff, said: "The Governor send his greetings and best wishes to you for lots of success for the future. I can assure you now that the hard work is done there will be plenty to take part in the glory for erecting this fine building. The citizens of this community should be proud of you."

In closing, he stated: "Never forget what your main objectives are as members of the V. F. W. and I wish you years of success."

Koons said: "Today we have with us a great hero of our country. He is General Clifford Blumel, the hero of Bataan in the last war. I now take pleasure in presenting to you this great hero."

General Blumel, addressing the assemblage, said: "It is a pleasure to be here and the members of this post are to be congratulated on this fine home. Veteran organizations are a necessity in this country to keep the people awake, so that the country will always be strong, and no group will be able to sell us out. A group is still trying to sell this country out right now. This organization and others like it make the people of the country stand up and fight for freedom and prevent its selling out."

He concluded by stating: "Keep the people awake and always fight for freedom because once you lose it, you will never regain it."

A selection was played by the Chester W. Terchon Post 5542 V. F. W. Cadets from Bristol after which Captain Wilson Starbuck of the U. S. Navy was introduced.

Captain Starbuck said: "The V. F. W. is very interested in our country and work for the good of it besides working for peace. This post is to be congratulated on this fine new post home."

"About 39 miles away is a large naval base," Captain Starbuck declared. "It is a huge naval base right in your own back yard and is part of a program that will help us as a free nation. I have seen a lot of ships pass through it. When you get down to Philadelphia be sure and look it over. Right at the present time general visiting is not allowed but you will be able to see enough to know that the navy has a big base in this area and is on the job."

A selection was played by the Trenton V. F. W. Post 491 drum and bugle corps, after which Colonel William W. Paca, U. S. Marine Corps, and Major Joseph A. Barrett, U. S. Air Force, were introduced.

State Commander of the V. F. W., Lewis G. Fildmann, was presented. Mr. Fildmann said: "This building is not only a memorial to those who served but being a V. F. W. post home it stands for the ideals of the members. The V. F. W. knows that this country has been sold out many times by the bungling of our national statesmen in the State Department. All of us know how we have been sold out and it is the job of the V. F. W. to tell all the people how the United States has been sold out. If it was not for the men in uniform we would not be free people here today, and it is up to the American people to back the Government and see that the right people are in office that will not sell us out." He concluded by saying: "It is better to die on our feet than to die on our knees."

The following guests were introduced who all wished the post success in future years: State Senator Edward B. Watson, Assemblyman Wilson Yeakel, Assemblyman Marvin V. Keller, Bucks County District Attorney Willard S. Curtin, and Russell Arata, V. F. W. County Commander.

President of Borough Council, Harry M. Lair, said "This is a fine new home for the V. F. W. and it is something to be proud of. I congratulate you on it and wish success to you in the future."

"Just think what can be done with children," Mr. Lair declared. "Any place you go in this country you will see children playing. This is something you will not see in any other country, because in other countries as soon as they are old enough to walk they are taught to fight. In this country we do not teach our children to fight and may it always stay this way."

The Rev. Joseph D. Gallagher, pastor of Holy Trinity R. C. Church, gave the benediction.

The following units took part in the parade: Morrisville Police, Pennsylvania State Police, 4th District Naval Band, 50th Armored Artillery, 141st Fighter Squadron, Riley Raiders from Philadelphia, Terchon Post Cadets from Bristol, Bracken Post Cadets, Bristol, Civil Air Patrol, Union Fire Company,

Honor Cadet Awards Presented at Banquet

George Stock, Commander of the Soby Post, American Legion.

Commander Stock said: "The American Legion is behind you cadets in every thing you do. You have always done a fine job and we are proud of the Cadet Corps. I want you to know that the post is not just behind you in spirit, but also financially, and wish you good luck and success for the future."

Peter Kutger, treasurer of the Cadet committee, informed that Cadet jackets will be presented as gifts. Mr. Kutger said: "The jackets have not come in yet, but are expected to be here in the next few days. For a cadet to receive a jacket he must have three years of service in the corps and been faithful in attendance." The following cadets will receive their jackets: Ida Mae Rodel, Dorothy Staudenmayer, Mary Kaytor, Mattie Reese, Agnes Kitchener, Rosemary Berghauer, Jay May and Alex McDonald.

Roy Brenner, chairman of the banquet committee, made the presentation of flowers to the majorities, Nancy Kauffman, June Kimble and Jane Coulton, for fine leadership they have shown.

The three Mathews memorial awards, made each year to the most deserving, most popular, and the honor cadet, were next presented. Members of the cadet committee made the presentations. Lynn Poyner presented the "most deserving" award to William R. Clay; Stafford Caldwell presented the "most popular" award to Mattie Reese; Edward Ott, chairman of the cadet committee, was called upon to make the honor cadet presentation. Mr. Ott said: "The honor cadet is chosen by the commander of the post, the committee, and the president of the cadets. This year it was decided to have two honor cadets, and from now on there will be two honor cadets picked each year. This year we chose Mildred Meyers and Cora Coulton for their loyalty and faithfulness to the corps, and the high spirit they have shown in helping to keep the corps going when the going was tough."

Toastmaster Zalot said: "We have lost a lot of our cadets this year through their becoming of age, and for other reasons, but these two girls who have just been named honor cadets did a lot to keep the corps going. It was the kind of spirit that they showed that we all like to see—the 'never-say-die' spirit. We have fallen behind and slipped some this year but with a lot of hard work and the spirit you cadets have shown I know you will again have one of the best corps in the country."

Ernest Heizmann, of the Lions Club, made the presentation from the Lions Club. Mr. Heizmann said: "The Lions Club congratulates you on the work done in keeping the corps going. Keep up the good work, and it is assured that you will be on top before long. As everyone knows, the Lions Club puts its accent on youth and it is with great pleasure the club presents this check for $200 to the cadet corps."

Mr. Zalot thanked the club for the check and said: "It is wonderful to have organizations like the Lions in back of our future citizens, and as long as groups like this are for youth, this country will always be a great one."

"The time for the presentation of discharges has come in the program," Mr. Zalot declared, "and I will call upon Herbert Walker, a past commander of this post, and a past 9th district commander, to present them." Mr. Walker said: "The Soby post cadets have made a fine name for themselves and have been in this year in competition. Everyone hopes that next year they will be back to take their places where they belong at the top. We all have faith that you can do it. You can do it as you have done it before. The national convention will be held in Miami this year, and if you work hard you might have a chance to get there as a cadet corps."

"When cadets become 21 years of age they are not allowed in competition and are ready to take their place in the world as adults. While in the cadets they had to learn how to be good citizens, good sports, and how to get along with others so that they are ready to take their places in the community. The following have reached this point in life and at this time I will present discharges to: Mildred Meyers, Philip Rodel, Jr., Philip Dougherty, Cora Coulton and William Clay. The three who were unable to attend tonight, who also will receive their discharges, are Lloyd McGinn, Michael Iannucci and Anna May Rago."

Mr. Zalot introduced the guest speaker, the Rev. Albert Eastburn, Hoboken, N. J. The clergyman said: "It is a real pleasure to be here tonight as it is always a happy occasion when you get the chance to talk to old friends and people you worked with. In looking around I miss a lot of the 'old-timers' but see a lot of new faces. Some who I see were only children when I last saw them. There has been a lot of improvement in the post and I am glad to hear the young fellows are taking an active part in running it."

"Very few people are aware of the seriousness of the times we are now living in. The world is getting away from God. The church has taught us to believe in God and to put our trust in Him. America is a God-fearing country and we want to keep it that way. I believe the law for universal military training is un-Christian and should not be passed. We are the only nation that does not have this and all our men and women do their best when called. This country has never been defeated with this system."

"This nation is a nation that puts its belief in God and that is the way we want to keep it. We are now in the eventide of life, and if we are to save America, all citizens, boys and girls, must get up and say 'I believe in God.'"

In closing, the Rev. Mr. Eastburn said: "Unless we all can get up and say 'I believe in God and my country,' America will not be saved."

Mr. Ott announced that the cadets will meet at 6:30 on Tuesday at the cadet hall to go to Frankford and participate in a parade. On Oct. 31st the cadets will take part in the Pennell Halloween parade.

The committee was thanked for the part it played in making the banquet a success. The Rev. Mr. Hillis gave the benediction, and dancing followed.

The following are members of the corps: Nancy Kauffman, June Kimble, Jane Coulton, Nancy Poyner, Walter Mason, Ronald Janney, Joseph Settelien, George Brown, Morton Sutton, Cora Coulton, Philip Rodel, Jr., Mildred Meyers, David Fetters, Edmond Mason, John Settelien, Thomas Meyers, John Monachello, Lloyd McGinn, Gwendolyn Birchhead, John Totto, Samuel Totto, Ida Mae Rodel, Dorothy Staudenmayer, Mary Kaytor, Catherine Dimmick, Kaytor Reese, Shirley Holzmann, Joan Cronin, Agnes Kitchener, Rosemary Berghauer, Bernard Daugherty, Clyde Lawson, Kenneth Kauffman, Richard Meyers, Lewis Iannucci, Michael Iannucci, John Pica, William C. Jehovah's Witnesses To Meet at Bridgeton

Sponsored by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, more than 800 members of Jehovah's Witnesses will convene in Bridgeton, N. J., over the weekend to hold a regional convention in Bridgeton high school.

M. G. Henschel, representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York City, will give the opening address on Friday evening.

The Watchtower Society is the governing body for Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the world and last August directed an International Convention at Yankee Stadium in New York City. That convention was highlighted by a resolution of Jehovah's Witnesses against Godless Communism and also the release to the public of the "New World Translation" of the Greek Scriptures.

This week's circuit assembly includes lectures by various members of the organization as well as a session of the Theocratic Ministry School. The latter session is used to train new ministers.

A baptism will be held on Sunday morning and the high point of the assembly will be on Sunday afternoon when M. G. Henschel will deliver an address entitled "Choose Life That You May Live." The public is invited to attend all sessions and no collections will be taken.

Dr. John Philip Erwin, of Perkasie, who left an estate of $20,000, bequeathed the residue to two sisters, Alice Gessler, 1401 Sheridan street, N. W., Washington, D. C., and Kathryn Shober, 6717 Woolston road, Philadelphia. The

Autumn Ceremony Unites Couple From This Area

An attractive fall wedding was witnessed in Bristol Presbyterian Church on Saturday, when at four p. m., Miss Elizabeth G. Thompson became the bride of Mr. Robert C. Streeter. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Thompson, of Maryland avenue, Croydon. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Markley Streeter, Landreth Manor.

Two large white bouquets of pompon chrysanthemums were placed on either side of the altar. In the candelabra candles were lighted. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, The Rev. Edward G. Yeomans performed the double ring ceremony. Mr. Horace Hutchison, Morrisville, organist accompanied Miss Marian Schwartz, Bristol, soloist. Miss Schwartz rendered "Thru the Years," "Ich Leberdich," and "O Perfect Love" during the ceremony.

The bride chose as her maid of honor Mrs. Edward Stanski, Burlington, N. J. Her gown of gold colored faille featured an off-shoulder neckline edged in satin cording of the same shade. The gown was styled with a tight bodice featuring a row of tiny buttons down the front. The sleeves were cap shape. A bouffant skirt was gathered at the waistline. She wore a cap in matching material and white nylon gloves. Gold slippers completed her attire. Her cascade bouquet was of rust and bronze chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles McMorro, Burlington, N. J., a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Dorothy MacPherson, Bethayres. The gowns were alike in design to that of the maid of honor, their shade being forest green. They wore matching caps, silver slippers, and carried cascade bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mr. John Markley Streeter Jr., served his brother as best man. The ushers were Mr. Chester Streeter, brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Gordon Davis, Philadelphia. The bridal gown was of white satin with chintilly lace trim. It was styled with a tight bodice. Sleeves were pointed over the hands. A collar folded back to form a V-neckline. An inch and a half ruffle of lace was gathered around the collar and continued in a double ruffle down the front of the bodice and around a single peplum in front and a double peplum in back. This gave the gown a bustle effect. The full, gathered skirt ended in a train. Her fingertip veil of scalloped French illusion was held in place with a bonnet effect lace cap. The bride carried her paternal grandmother's wedding handkerchief and wore her maternal grandmother's pearls. She wore silver slippers. Her flowers were a cascade of small white mums.

The brides attendants wore the rhinestone necklaces and earrings presented them by the bride. The bridegroom presented his attendants with leather bill folds. Mrs. Thompson, mother of the bride, wore a green crepe dress, brown hat and brown accessories. Mrs. Streeter chose a maroon dress, black hat and accessories. Both wore corsages of rust and gold chrysanthemums.

A reception was held in St. James parish house for 150. After a motor trip to St. Louis, Mo., the couple will reside at 333 Cedar street. BENSALEM TAKES UNDISPUTED POSSESSION OF FIRST PLACE IN LOWER BUCKS SCHOOL LEAGUE

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Oct. 23.—Bensalem Township, defending champions, took undisputed possession of first place in the Lower Bucks County League with a victory over Pennsbury High Saturday afternoon on the Street Road field.

It was the third straight league triumph for the Owls and the first loss in league competition by Pennsbury. Bensalem's record is now 3 wins and two losses for the season while Pennsbury has won two, tied one, and lost two.

A safety, scored midway in the final period, enabled the boys of Coach Marlon Van Horn to score a 2-0 win in the low scoring battle. The safety occurred after the Falcons had made a gallant goal-line stand and took over on their one-yard line. On the first play, Jack Sands took a reverse from Al Reed and attempted to skirt his right end. But Gene Connolly, Bensalem center, broke through and nailed Sands behind the goal line.

Bensalem had threatened on two previous occasions but Pennsbury was equal to the task on both occasions. In the second quarter, the Owls were as close as the 10-yard line. Pennsbury's best scoring chance took place in the initial period when Sands threw a pass to Frank Hunter. No Bensalem player was within 15 yards of Hunter and he had a team-mate for interference but in his anxiety to get away, Hunter dropped the ball. It would have been a certain touchdown.

Both teams played fine defensive ball, only ten first downs being registered. Bensalem had six of these, two in the first half and four in the second. Pennsbury had four firsts, all in the second half. Pennsbury did an excellent job in grounding the highly-touted aerial attack of the Owls. Fifteen passes were thrown by Owl backs and only three completed for a complete gain of 17 yards.

Bensalem was playing without the services of its ace quarterback, Bob Whitfield, who was sidelined because of illness. In the last play of the third quarter, Myron Mattocks, Owl's guard, was injured. He was removed to the Frankford Hospital in the ambulance of the Bucks County Rescue Squad for treatment for a back injury.

Two penalties hindered the Bensalem team in the first period. Bray got off a punt to the Bensalem 46. Bowman picked up his own fumble and made eight yards. Broza missed a first down but Bader made it, carrying the ball to the Pennsbury 40. After Ballistis made two on the ground, Al Bader again made a first, this time on Pennsbury's 26. After a grounded pass, Bensalem was penalized five yards. A pass, Bader to Walt Smith, was completed for 10 yards. Another aerial was completed to the 15-yard line but Bensalem again was penalized five yards, the play being recalled. The Owls lost the ball on downs on the 27.

Mayo, on the first play, pranced around his left end for a first down but Pennsbury drew a 15-yard penalty, setting them back to the 15. Sands then threw the heart-breaking pass which Frank Hunter dropped. Bader broke up the Falcons' possession by intercepting a pass on the Pennsbury 45.

Neither team did any more damage until half-way in the second quarter when Bristow recovered a fumble on the 10-yard line of Pennsbury. But two plays later, Coia recovered a fumble to give the visitors possession on the 11. Pennsbury gained 9 yards on three tries and on the fourth down, Reed attempted an end run but was tackled on his 16, Bensalem taking over. However, Bensalem failed to capitalize and lost the ball on downs, gaining but two yards on a short pass.

In the third quarter, Pennsbury made its first down. Following a kick by Jack Weaver to the 19, Hunter found an opening at tackle and slipped through for 19 yards. But again the Bensalem line failed to bend and Pennsbury was forced to kick. Sands got off on an end run later in the period and when about to be tackled passed ahead of him, giving Pennsbury a five-yard penalty but gaining 16 yards on the play.

A bad punt by Bud Bray actually set up the safety. The boot only traveled 11 yards from the 21 to the 32 in Pennsbury's territory. Bensalem fumbled but Smith recovered for a two-yard gain. Bader ploughed the line for seven yards and Bowman made a first on the 20. Bader and Broza gained enough yardage to carry the ball to the 9. Bader went to the five but Bensalem was penalized five yards. Bader picked up two and Briggs stopped Broza in his tracks. On fourth down, Bader was stopped one yard away from the goal. Sands attempted to run the ball out on a reverse and was tackled behind the goal line for the safety.

After Dwyer recovered a Pennsbury fumble on the latter's 45, Bensalem worked the ball to the 23 as the tilt came to an end.

ST. ANN'S CAPTURES THIRD WIN IN ROW; DEFEATS TACONY

St. Ann's A. A. captured its third straight game of the Northeast Football Conference yesterday afternoon on the high school field, defeating Tacony Boys Club, 12-0.

The victory enabled the Bristol team to go into a triple deadlock for first place with Ditman and Willow Grove. Willow Grove won yesterday while Ditman was beaten. St. Ann's will play Ditman next Sunday. Efforts are being made to play the game here.

In a brief ceremony between halves of the game, the St. Ann's coaches, Pete Bornice and Joe Roe, presented Stan Lelinski, star back-field ace of the "Saints," with a gift on behalf of the team. Lelinski leaves today for the U. S. Army.

Nick Spadaccini again scored both of the St. Ann's touchdowns. His first was scored on a quick pass from Tom Dentino on the five yard line with 10 seconds remaining to be played in the first half. The second TD was made on a sensational 73-yard run after taking a reverse from Lelinski. In three games with St. Ann's, Spadaccini has accounted for six of the seven touchdowns scored by the Bristol team.

St. Ann's threatened to score many times during the fracas but until the two scoring plays were made, Dame Fortune had frowned on the team.

In the initial period, after Keys recovered a fumble on the 41, the Bristol boys worked the ball to the 16 yard line. Featuring the drive was a pass from Tom Dentino to Clarence Anderson and two short runs by Dentino. From the 16, Spadaccini got loose on an end run but before crossing the goal line fumbled on the two with Tacony recovering. Tacony made two first downs in succession to work itself from the predicament.

St. Ann's kept driving and reached the 21-yard line of Tacony but Smith busted the attack by a pass interception. Bonacasa kicked to Spadaccini who returned the ball to his 40. Elmer, on an end run, gained 20 yards but Tacony held.

In the second session, "Howie" Keys again pounced on a loose ball on the Tacony 43. Spadaccini, Lelinski, and Joe Andriotti gained considerable ground and a penalty brought the ball to Tacony's 5. The visitors held and on the fourth down, Nick Lomma tried for a field goal and missed.

"Howie" Keys recovered his third fumble on the first play, giving the Purple and Gold the ball on the 15, but Wysocki, former Temple player, got the ball back for Tacony by intercepting a pass on his 13. Tacony failed to gain and kicked to mid-field. Zeiss intercepted a long pass on his 19 but Lelinski intercepted one for St. Ann's on the 30 and ran to the 5. With 10 seconds left, Dentino rifled a short pass to Spadaccini, who ran the short distance to cross the goal line.

In the third period, St. Ann's made a hard drive that carried the ball for three first downs from its 31 to the invaders' 20. But twice Dentino failed to locate receivers on passes and was thrown for losses amounting to 20 yards. Later Frank Dudeck recovered a fumble on the 25 and the localites got as far as the 11 before losing the ball.

The visitors kicked out of danger and an exchange of punts followed. On one of these, Singer was downed on his 45 and Lelinski lost 12 yards on an attempted end run. Taking the ball on the 27 after Dentino handed to Lelinski, Spadaccini followed his interference nicely until he got out in the open and raced 73 yards for the final touchdown.

Tacony opened with a fine aerial attack towards the finish and on one occasion scored but the play was recalled because of a penalty. St. Ann's had 10 first downs to Tacony's 7.

Imperial... in every sense of the word!

Imperial... every powerful, gleaming inch of it. Imperial... it is the only word that comes to mind when you see the luxurious fabrics and appointments inside. Imperial... is the way you feel as individual motors raise and lower your windows. Imperial... is the only word that describes your command of the road as you drive. Imperial by Chrysler is the wholly new car that is setting a new goal for every family with the taste and the experience in motor cars to recognize unrivaled built-in value all the way through. It is the first car in America to make no compromise with quality... the only car to consider if you want the finest. We'll welcome an opportunity to let the Imperial prove it.

See it—drive it... there's built-in value all the way through!
